Draft Is Delayed 10 Hours

STREET SUPT. MAKES FULL REPORT

Spent Less Money This Year But Made Good

City Engineer H. D. Chapman yesterday rendered to the city council a full and voluminous report of his department for the fiscal year ending with June 30. Also a tabulated statement showing the streets, sewer, and other similar work done, and all the detailed costs for same. The document and the table form very interesting reading, but are too long for news publication. From the report, however, is made the following selections:

There have beeen no large contracts completed this year, as during the year ending June 30, 1916, but there have been some rather important streets paved, notably San Pablo Avenue, and the greater part of Twenty-third Street, and the intersection of Cutting Boulevard, Garvin Boulevard and Richmond Ave.

Total Street Milage

The total street mileage of streets in the city, with the class of improvement, is as follows:

Water Bound Macadam, 44 miles.
Oiled Macadam, 30 miles.
Richmond Standard Macadam, 10 miles.
Sheet Asphalt, 2 1-2 miles.
Asphalt Concrete, 4 miles.
Bitulithic, 12 miles
Richmondite, one-fourth mile.
Paint Top, one-eighth mile
Oiled Macadam (by Tract Owners) 32 1-3 miles.

Making 96 miles of paved streets and a mileage of 91 miles unpaved out of a total street mileage of 187 miles.

In general, all these streets are in a fair condition, with two or three exceptions.

The Richmond Standard Macadam streets have worn well, and are giving far better satisfaction than the original oiled macadam streets.

The present plan of a concrete base with a paint top is a step in the right direction, and should give good results, as to wear, and having besides the advantage of future re-

"UNCONQUERED" TODAY AT RICHMOND THEATER

Tully Marshall, the splendid star of the stage and screen, will be seen at the Richmond Theatre today in support of Fannie Ward in the "Unconquered." In this thrilling drama Mr. Marshall plays one of his most wonderful characterizations—that of Jake, a half-crazed negro, who through his fear of Voodooism believes that he must make a human sacrifice. It is a well known fact that Voodooism still exists among some of the most ignorant negroes in the south, although the strange cult has beene stamped out in most places.

In addition to this bill there will be shown the Fourth Edititon of the Official British War Pictures which are growing more and more interesting with each serial. These are the same pictures that are being shown all over the east and at the Tivoli theatre in San Francisco and which are unusually interesting.

WRECKS FORD

George Kelly, the plumber, broke the front axle on his Ford yesterday in the Municipal Tunnel, when the steering gear broke and the machine swerved into the side of the tunnel. He escaped unhurt and the machine was towed away to be rejuvenated.

687,000 Are Needed Now Of the 10,000,000 Registered

This Evening the Numbers Will Be Flashed By Telegraph, So Every Registered Man Can Tell Whether He Has Been Called Or Not

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Because of error in procedure of local boards, particularly in New Jersey, discovered late today Provost Marshal General Crowder abandoned the entire elaborate plan of the war army drawing tomorrow, as previously announced. A full drawing of numbers from 1 to between 10,000 and 11,000 will be made tomorrow instead. More than ten hours will be required to complete the task.

CARDS NOT SHUFFLED

The error discovered was the failure of the local boards involved to shuffle the registration cards from various registration precincts before they began placing on them the serial numbers required by the regulations. The result in these sections might have been under the original plan to take the entire quota of one of these districts from a single registration precinct.

"The only change in the plan will be that there will be one drawing instead of two.

"The advantage will be greater simplicity. The disadvantage will be that the drawing will require ten hours to complete."

At last the fatal day has arrived and within ten hours after this paper has reached its readers this morning the great draft lottery will have been conducted in Washington, and the numbers of the registered men who have been called to the colors will be coming over the telegraph wires, informing each man who knows his serial number whether it is going to be necessary for him to appear before the local registration board and make application for exemption for any of the causes specified, should he so desire, or not.

PROVOST MARSHALL'S DRAFT INSTRUCTIONS

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The great lottery through which the first to be called up for the national army will be determined will be held at the capitol building Friday. This was conceded at the office of Provost Marshal General Crowder at noon today, when it was announced that only two states—Pennsylvania and New York—have failed to report the complete organization of the exemption boards.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The "war lottery" to select the national army, will be drawn in groups. Only 1000 numbers will be drawn. The 1000, however, will dispose of the entire registered eligibles, numbering nearly 10,000,000 men.

General Enoch Crowder, provost marshal general, so announced today. The 10,000,000 registrants are divided into groups. These groups are controlled by "key numbers" from 0 to 9. The men to be called up have been numbered in red ink on the selective list by the local boards. These red ink serial numbers run from very small figures in the lightly poplated districts to more than 9000 in a very few other districts.

In explaining the manner in which the drawing shall take place, General Crowder today issued the following:

"Ten million men are registered; 687,000 are needed in the first call. Who shall go first?

"If we were dealing with the ancient draft we should take every fourteenth man. But we are not conscripting. We are selecting for military service those whose civil service can best be spared.

"Therefore the qestion is not 'Who shall go first?' but who shall be called first for examination?"

PENDULUM SWINGS TO GERMANY

GERMANY IS VICTORIOUS ON TWO BATTLE FRONTS

NEW YORK, July 19.—Germany was victorious on the offensive on two fronts today.

Official battle news showed violent Teutonic attacks against the French south of St. Quentin on a front of half a mile, which the French statement admitted had at its outset swept over the first line trenches. Later, the Paris satement said, the grond was won back by counter attack.

Berlin's version was that the attack was successful over the front of two-thirds of a mile and that all counter attacks broke down.

U-BOATS ARE SINKING MORE THAN ARE BUILT

WASHINGTON, July 19.—America and her allies must make a tremendous sea and air offensive against Germany, if they would check the U-boat menace, naval authoritties here warned today.

President Wilson has been urged to consider the plan.

In the same breath, they predicted Germany will come out victorious if only the present defensive anti-submarine warfare is continued.

One million tone of shipping is lost monthly from submarines, while perhaps one-third that amount is the total built to replace it.

RUSSIANS ADMIT LOSS AND SO DO BRITISH

On the eastern battle, line, the Rssian counter attacks being repulsed. losses at Novica and retirement from part of that village.....Berlin did not relate this incident, but told of Russian counter attacks being repised.

LONDON, July 19.—Recapture of British advanced posts east of Monchy le Preux, which Field Marshal Haig's men were forced to leave under German attacks Wednesday, was announced in the official report today.

WONDERFUL CROPS OF SUNNY CALIFORNIA

Increase in prices coupled with greater production will bring California's crop of cereals and potatoes to a value this year of more than one hundred million dollars, as against forty-seven million last year, according to figures roughly compiled from the United States department of agriculture's comparative estimate and forecast of crop conditions issued July 1. Thus there will be returned to California growers and dealers more than two dollars for every dollar they received last year. The prices on which the figures are based are those for July 1, 1917 and July 1, 1916.

Increase in output is responsible for more than twenty million dollars worth of cereals and potatoes and the remainder of the difference between one hundred million and forty-seven million represents increase in prices.

Cereals included in the figures are corn, wheat, oats, barley and rice.

California is shown to have responded in the fullest degree to the appeal of Uncle Sam for more foodstuffs. The crop summary shows that all crops have been increased over those of 1916.

ABSTRACT OF TITLE IS VERY IMPORTANT

In buying or trading for property the very first thing to make sure of should be the title, and anyone who neglect to demand an abstract of title when making any kind or a realty deal is making a very grave mistake, and one that may prove very expensive when it is too late to remedy.

The Richmond Abstract and Title Company is thoroughly equipped to turn out an abstract of title that will be absolutely correct and guaranteed, on short notice. They have on file at the Richmond offices, 22d street near Macdonald, a complete photographic record of all transactions in realty ever made in Contra Costa County, and so when you want any kind of an abstract of title, you are sure that it is right, and get it quick, and at a very reasonable price, by making known your wants to the president and manager, Mr. Chas. G. Bacon.

This is a home company, all its earnings go to building up Richmond and it should have the unqualified support of all Richmond people.

RUSSIAN MOB RAISES HADES

Many Killed But Government Controls Situation

PETRAGRAD, July 19.—The government wins!

Quelling of the revolt which, for three days, has torn the city with dissension and caused fighting on the streets, for the first time since the revolution, had been apparently accomplished tonight.

Arrests by the wholesale, of mutineers and malcontents responsible for rioting is continuing. Nicholai Lenine, now believed a paid German agent, is a fugitive.

The city is rapidly approaching normal. It was quiet tonight, with no shooting reported.

The city is rejoicing tonight over ending of the street disturbances.

The street disorders which today resulted in proclamation of martial law in Petrograd, apparently grew out of Minister of War Kerensky's disbandment of several companies of paviosk and grenadier troops because they refused to fight.

Late Monday night a number of these soldiers, fully armed, staged a demonstration on the streets. They were joined with nearly four thousand men above the age of 40, refused military discharge by Kerensky.

W. O. W. DRILL TEAM ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The drill team of the Woodmen of the World meets tonight at the W. O. W. Hall, when they will elect their Capatin and lieutenant.

PROMINENT MOOSE SERIOUSLY CHARGED

Members of the Lodge of Moose were surprised and shocked by reading in the newspapers that Secretary O. W. Hyde of the Stockton Moose is being sought on a felony-embezzlement charge. The secretary is charged with absconding with the funds of the lodge.

CARRIE ELLSWORTH AT PYTHIAN BALL

The grand ball of the Knights of Pythias is to be given tomorrow (Saturday) night, at East Shore Park, and promises to be one of the best entertainments of the season. At this pleasure party will appear little Miss Carrie Ellsworth, the little lady who has danced herself into the hearts of Richmond people. She will give two of her famous dances that evening, and this will be the last chance to see her, as she leaves with her mother for Los Angeles, in a few days, to make a long stay in the southern city.

The Knights and Ladies of Pythian Castle are working hard to give the public something unusually enjoyable on this occasion, and lovers of terpscorian art are going to miss a rare treat unless they attend.

MILK MAN HURT ON POINT HILLS

V. Filetta, a driver for the Swiss Dairy, broke two ribs yesterday while driving down Prospect avenue at the Point. The shaft on the wagon broke while going down the hill and the frightened horse swerved to the side, upsetting the wagon and throwing Filletta out on his side. L. Breckerieg and a friend who were driving by in a machine picked up the injured man and took him to Dr. Cunningham, who attended him.

ARRESTED FOR CRUELTY TO SAN PABLO ANIMAL

Edward Argeltiner was arrested yesterday on charge of cruelty to animals, sworn to by Humane Officer Calfee, and was released on $10 bail. Argeltinter drove a weak worn-out horse in spite of Rev. Calfee's warning that if he did he would be arrested. The horse is so weak that it takes three hours to make the trip to Macdonald avenue and back.

Editorial Comment.

MAKE THE FOREIGN SLACKER FIGHT AS WELL AS WE LOYAL AMERICANS

This paper was the first around California, and as far as we know, the first in the United States, some months ago, to proclaim the utter injustice of sending our American boys across the seas to fight foreign wars with and for foreigners, UNLESS THE FOREIGNERS ENSCONCED IN COMFORT HERE IN OUR COUNTRY SHOULD GO AND HELP FIGHT THEIR OWN WAR.

The simple justice of this demand must appeal to every right-thinking man or woman, and evidently it has, for many other papers have since takeen it up, and Senator Chamberlain, chairman of military affairs in the Senate, will in the next few days introduced a bill to cover this point. Every man should write to his senator and coungressman to vote for this bill, and DO IT NOW. Commenting upon it, the San Francisco Call of last evening says editorially:

"The bill provides that no Slacker of a friendly nation engaged in common war against the central powers shall be allowed to stay here in this country and TAKE the JOB AWAY from some LOYAL YOUNG AMERICAN who is drafted to go across the ocean and fight.

There are one or two nations which are exempt from military service in the United States army under any circumstances whatsoever—they are made so by treaties which their countries have signed with the United States.

The men of the these nations will be taken care of by the provisions of the Slacker Bill. They will be given ninety days to quit the country, and if they do not go, they will be deported and sent back home, where their own miliary authorities can draft them into their own armies.

No Briton, Frenchman, Russian, Belgian, Italian, Rumanian, Servian Portuguese or Japanese can stay here in this country and be PROTECTED by its LAWS and HELPED by its INSTITUTIONS, while AMERICAN BOYS FACE DEATH to fight the battles in which EVERY ONE of these foreigners is even more vitally interested than any American can possibly be.

The Commitee on Military Affairs believes that there are in this counutry today at least one million aliens who are of the drafting age. Why not set the draft to work to get their services, as well as the services of our own boys?

Why should we bleed ourselves to death, send across the ocean the flower and the hope and the dependence and the pride of our country, while Alien Slackers stay here in ease and comfort?

This county is governed by the people through their representatives. No war in the world can ever be successfully waged by the American army unless the American people are behind the army, from one end of the country to the other.

The people are LOYAL and PATRIOTIC. It is not only the DUTY, but the BEST POLICY of the President, his advisors and the Senate and the House of Representatives, to keep the people loyal and patriotic.

No influence in the world so eats away the VERY ROOT of fealty and faith as a GNAWING SENSE of INJUSTICE—and that sense has come to the gnawing point with most of our Americans.

The thought of that ONE MILLION ALIEN SLACKERS rose like a ghost between every single minded American and his feeling of absolute DUTY and LOYALTY to his FLAG.

Human nature is human nature, whether it follows the Star Spangled Banner, the tricolor of France, or the Union Jack of England; and no enterprise was ever won whose leader did not count, and count definitely, upon the influence of the vagaries of human nature upon his plans.

The Chamberlain Slacker Bill is not only good sense, good justice, good patriotism and good Americanism—it is good politics.

Get behind it with all your strength and influence and power. That is one way and a very direct, practical, commonsense way of proving yourself to be in this time of stress and turmoil a good American. And the true and loyal server of the cause to which we have pledged not only our money, our influence and our munitions—but our own beloved sons.

Pacifism also ought to begin at home, like charity.

The chaperon has the most thankless job if she does her work well.

If you don't get along very well, it probably isn't for any lack of good advice.

Some of the world's greatest loafers posed as philosophers and got away with it.

If a man has nothing else but a long line of excuses, people will lose interest in his samples.

After a man begins to pay the bills it seems like about every other day is the first day of the month.

The man who is willing to tell all he knows, is likely to go further and guess at a good deal more.

A newspaper, in speaking of a deceased citizen, said: "We knew him as old Ten Per Cent.—The more he had the less he spent—the more he got the less he lent—he's dead—we don't know where he went; but if his soul to heaven is sent—he'll own the harp and charge 'em rent."

JUSTICE TO ALL MUST PREVAIL

Ideal That Alone Can Inspire Nation to War's Sacrifices.

LABOR MUST NOT BEAR ALL

Working People Too Intelligent to Allow Themselves to Be Exploited by Employers In the Name of Patriotism—Standards Must Be Maintained. Benefits of Short Day Proved.

By SAMUEL GOMPERS.

Every ideal must have its roots in justice and must bear fruit in the common life. The ideal that alone can inspire our nation for the sacrifices of this war is infallible assurance of justice to all.

From various localities come querulous complaints that employees must interpose no resistance to any demands of employers or they are "guilty of interfering with preparations for the war—or treason."

Yet these same employers have made no war sacrifices—their industries are still organized for private profits. They are hour by hour increasing their incomes through wartime opportunities. Under these conditions they have sought to heap greater burdens upon wage earners that would sap their vitality, but without attempting to recompense them through increased wages.

The working people of this country are too intelligent to be deceived by employers who seek to exploit them in the name of patriotism. Some employers have even been so audacious as to demand of employees an oath of fidelity—to employers!

There is, among workers, an honest patriotism that will dare all for idealism. It has been nurtured in the struggles for idealism of industrial justice, better life and work. It will serve the cause of humanity and democracy and it will resist all prostitution in the interests of capitalism and profiteering.

In order that the workers may render honorable service to the nation in time of need, labor asks that voluntary agencies be recognized or established so that industrial grievances may be equitably adjusted.

There seems to be manifest among those intrusted with the defense of the nation a desire to profit by the experiences of those countries already engaged in war in all matters except those affecting labor. In the emotional period of transition and confusion that followed the beginning of the European war, every effort was made to speed up production. Under the conviction that the war could last but a few months, workers were urged to work long hours to the exhaustion point, supposedly to increase output. After a few weeks the volume of output markedly decreased. Long hours result in only an immediate increase. When continued for a long period they undermine or destroy the productivity of the workers.

England found it necessary to make a scientific inquiry into welfare of munitions workers. As a result of experience and the investigations of specialists, it was recommended that employers re-establish normal hours of work, guard against overtime, provide for Sunday rest.

Despite this experience of Great Britain one of the first acts of this government after the declaration of war was an executive order suspending the federal eight hour law.

This action of the federal government was the signal for a terrific onslaught upon all protective labor legislation. The workers, recognizing the futility and injury in the lowering of standards to lengthen working hours, will resist all efforts in that direction. Their position is justified by experience wherever the eight hour day has been tried.

This is the declaration of the Ford Motor company:

"A certain group of men working nine hours under the old system assembled 750 radiators. The same group working eight hours under the new plan assembled 1,300 radiators. A group of men working nine hours under the old plan turned out 38 fenders. Under the new, working eight hours, the same men turned out 50 fenders. A group of 65 men working nine hours under the old system turned out 800 gas tanks. Under the new, working eight hours, the 65 men turned out 1,200. Hours were reduced, wages increased and cost went down."

The McElwain Shoe company reached this conclusion:

"To sum up, our whole experience tends to justify the shorter hours movement. We are absolutely convinced that it is right for the community as a whole, because we feel sure it would increase the net productivity of society. We believe it is right for the individual factory unit because we have come to realize that even in an individual plant the real problem is to get the maximum amount of work done by a given thousand people, not in a day, in a week, or in a year, but in a lifetime."

The contentions of the workers are based upon facts. They refuse to be swept from their position by war hysteria.

Eight hours in peace or in war is our slogan to conserve human life and insure greatest output.

Some Streets Need Fixing

Some of our older streets are in a deplorable condition, but this department is withheld the necessary repairs on account of the shortage in available money to pay for the work, and attention is called to the saving made over the budget allowance of last year,—in the financial statement you will note that the department spent on improved streets $6,300.00 less than was allowed. While we got by with this saving last year we cannot do it the coming year, and sufficient allowance must be made to cover absolutely needed repairs,—notably Barrett Avenue, Nevin Avenue, and Sixth Street.

Since the construction of the San Pablo Avenue roadway the City has one first-class street leading north and south from the City, and the improvement of Twenty-third Street from the end of the present improvement to the city limits should by all means be hastened.

About Street Signs

This department has recently placed Parking Signs on Macdonald Avenue in the center of the city, which seems to be greatly appreciated.

Direction signs consisting of a large red wooden arrow have also been placed at points of entrance into the city, and at various turns, directing the stranger toward various points such as the roads to Oakland, Martinez, and San Rafael and to Macdonald Avenue, etc. These signs have filled a long-felt want.

I would recommend that street signs be placed all over the city,—particularly cheap signs in the unimproved districts.

SMART MODEL.

FRUIT SIRUPS.

Juices For Jelly Making Kept Without Sugar Till Need For Them Arises.

Fruit juices for use later in jelly making can be sterilized and bottled without sugar and made into jellies at the housewife's convenience.

This enables her to do with fewer jelly glasses and to distribute her purchases of sugar for jelly making through the year. Moreover, with the bottled juice she can make a greater variety of jellies, as juices which will not jell can be put up when the fruit is ripe and combined later with fruits that will jell, or fruit ripening at different seasons can be combined.

For example, the juice of strawberries, cherries or pineapples can be kept without sugar and later, when apples are plentiful, can be made into combination jelly.

From the unsugared sterilized juices of currants, apples, crabapples and grapes, kept from nine to eighteen months, the bureau of chemistry, United States department of agriculture, recently made jellies of excellent texture flavor and color.

To put up unsugared fruit juices for jelly making proceed exactly as if jelly were to be made at the time. Cook the fruits until they are soft and strain out the juice through a flannel bag. Heat and pour while hot into bottles previously scalded. Fill the bottles full, leaving no air space between juice and cork or seal. Place the filled sealed bottles on their sides in water near the boiling point and keep them in the bath for about thirty minutes. Make sure that the corked or sealed end is under the hot water. As soon as the bottles are cool cover the cork with a paraffin seal. Thorough sterilization and sealing are absolutely essential to success.

To make jelly from the sterilized juice test its jelling quality, add the proper amount of sugar and proceed as in making jelly from freshly expressed juice.

Wedding Cake.

One pound of butter, one pound of black sugar, one and one-fourth pounds of flour, twelve eggs, six pounds of raisins, five pounds of currants, one and one-half pounds of citron, two teacupfuls of black molasses, two teacupfuls of wine, one cupful of brandy, two grated nutmegs, two tablespoonfuls of cloves, two tablespoonfuls of allspice, one tablespoonful of cinnamon. Before cutting the citron boil it, then use the water the citron was boiled in to put in the cake. The one-quarter of a pound of flour is used to roll the fruit in. At the last add one gill of milk and two tablespoonfuls of baking powder.

Plaster For Cracks.

Use vinegar instead of water to mix your plaster of paris. The resultant mass will be like putty and will not "set" for twenty or thirty minutes whereas if you use water the plaster will become hard almost immediately before you have time to use it. Push into the cracks and smooth it off nicely with a table knife.

Paraffined Paint Cans.

After housecleaning, if one has partly used cans of paint or varnish left over, which would soon dry up and become useless, try putting them into small cans and cover with melted paraffin. They will keep indefinitely and can be used as needed.

CALIFORNIA'S CALL IN PRINTED FORM

Since the first of this year the Union Pacific system has been publishing a series of historical articles in a great many of the leading publications of the United States, with a view to inducing Eastern people to come to California and enjoy its numerous attractions, and partake of its advantages.

On account of war conditions and the stringent passport regulations of this government, it is practically impossible for the tourists to leave the United States and for those seeking a vacation, California is the magnet which attracts irresistably.

And in addition to these articles and to further stimulate the desire to see California, the Union Pacific system, a railroad which has always been peculiarly identified with the development and prosperity of California, has issued thee second edition of their charming little booklet entitled "California Calls you" the first edition being utterly inadequate to supply the demand. This publication, the covers of which are most alluring, is proving to be a very effective little missionary in inducing the easterners to come to California. It is one of the best illustrated and most expensive pieces of literature that has ever been published in the interests of California and deserves highest commendation. Many beautiful views from each section of the state are shown, and short convincing paragraphs describe the various resources and attractions of each community.

Publicity of this sort will do untold good for all of California, and we are glad to encourage this good work on the part of the Union Pacific system.

The only objection we have to the booklet is that since looking it over we do not want to stay in the office and work, but, long to get out of doors and stay there, among the entrancing scenes it portrays.

The hearing of the City's plea for 90c gas in Richmond will be heard before the R. R. Commission today.

Schrader the furniture man is always plotting mischief. He took one of those new musical thingabobs to his house yesterday, and is saving a new song record to play for his wife when she returns from a visit in the far east. The song is about a fellow's wife who has gone to visit the Thousand Isles, and is going to spend a week on each isle, which makes him gay, so he has a stag party at the house every night. If Schrader springs that record on the Mrs. when she returns, he will deserve all he gets, which ought to be a-plenty.

Drs. Horner and Caesar went skidding by in an auto car last night and we wondered who was up against it now. Hard comination, that. One will take all your teeth out and the other saw your leg off, and either or both can amputate a bank roll as easily as cut out an apendix or kill a nerve in a wisdom tooth. We went through their teeth and medico shops one time, left behind all our teeth and what little money we had, and came out with nothing but an untarnished character and some medicine that tasted like limburger cheese smells. Now we are playing even on 'em, dodgast 'em. And they are fine fellows, at that, too, and none better in their lines in California.

Dad Breck is oiling up the old blunderbus to go out and kill a bear this fall. If dad sees the bear first, it will be all right, but if the bear sees Dad first, why, say, man, you will see a black speck going through the atmosphere in the general direction of 23d and Macdonald avenue, Richmond, and that will be Dad.

BEWARE OF PEDDLERS
THEY MAY KILL YOU

Agents are all over the west, including California, selling hair tonics, dandruff cures, plasters and other medicines, and it will be well to pass all of them up and refuse to buy, as it is thought that some of these are alien enemies and the nostrums they are selling very cheap, and often giving away is likely poisoned, with intent to spread infectiuous diseases. Kansas has had a terrible experience lately in this way, and arrests are now being made, as shown by the following telegram of last night:

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 19.—While chemists are seeking to identify germs found with the tetanus bacilli inoculated in cultures on court-plasters scottered broadcast through western Kansas by German agents, federal officials today are spreading a net which is expected to result in additional arrests. Three Germans are now in custody.

PRESIDENT IS ASKED

WASHINGTON, July 19.—National impatience at the delay caused by the Goethals-Denman row broke in the senate today when a resolution was adopted demanding from President Wilson full information on details of the fight.

ELEPHANT HAS 1 TRUNK BUT SCHRADER HAS 100

Since Schrader the furniture man got to be a bachelor, (for a while) he is privileged, like other lonely bachelors, to trail all around the country and only go home when all the other places are shut up. So recently he went out to Golden Gate park and visited the zoo, and noticing that the elephant had a trunk, this put an idea into Schrader's head, which is full of brains and wheels all mixed up together. So he wired an order east and bought a whole carload of trunks, and they are here in Richmond now, and he don't know what to do with so many. If he had only got one, like the elephant, it would have been different, but he got a hundred, and now if somebody will kindly drop around there and take a few dozen of them away he can get them on his own prices and terms, as Schrader has realized now that he is no elephant.

There are black trunks, yellow trunks, brown trunks, trunks with brass knobs all over 'em, trunks with and without straps, big trunks and little trunks, and trunks with draws in 'em like bureaus. There are mamma trunks and papa trunks, and in fact the whole blankety-blank family of trunks. Schrader is covered up with them, and is hollering for help to let loose—like the boy that caught the bumblebee.

Also, the factory, noticing that one end of the car was not full, piled in dozens and dozens of every kind of grip and satchell and suitcase that was ever made, and some that ought never have been made, so Schrader says, and so now if the dear kind people of Richmond will please hurry around there and help the poor lonly bachelor man out of his troubles, and buy a trunk, he will fill the trunk up with grips and satchels and suitcases, throwing in a few extra when you are not looking.

Anyhow, as we started out to say, there never was such bargains around the bay in trunks and grips as the Schrader Furniture store of Richmond is now offering. Go see for yourself.
